Introduction:

Establishment Background of the College:

The historical context of the education system of Sherpur district is not similar to the context of the education system of Bangladesh. This district was a backward region in education especially in women education. Sherpur was a small thana in the Garo hills area in the greater Mymensingh region of Bangladesh. For the girls of Sherpur area, studying in college was just a dream.

At such a time, Sherpur Government Mohila College was established on 26th July 1972 in the abandoned home of the late Landlord (zemindar) Gopal Das Chowdhury in the heart of Sherpur town with the joint efforts of some freedom fighter of the 1971 victory war and enthusiastic person to enhance women's education in this area.

Shortly after independence, the then Governor of Sherpur late Nizam Uddin Ahmed, late Advocate Anisur Rahman and late Pandit Fasiur Rahman proposed to the then Minister Abdur Rob Serniabat to establish a women's college in Sherpur.

Civil society in Sherpur nominated late Shahjadi Jahanara, headmistress of Mymensingh Muslim Girls School, as the founding principal.

Later the initial discussion about the college was held in the meeting of the managing committee of the Sherpur girls school.

In view of the discussion, a meeting was held at the Sherpur Girls School with the leading persons of Sherpur.

The meeting was presided over by the then Chief Whip Khan Bahadur Fazlur Rahman.

At the meeting an organizing committee was formed with the aim of establishing a women's college. This committee later became a committee of the governing body of the college.

Late Anisur Rahman became the President and late Muhsin Ali became the Secretary of the Governing Body.

Initially, the committee temporarily started college activities at Sherpur Girls' High School. Late Shahjadi Jahanara joined the newly established Sherpur Mohila College in July 1972 as the founding principal.

Then in 1973 Industries Minister Syed Nazrul Islam, Law Minister Shri Monranjan Dhar, Finance Minister Tajuddin Ahmed officially inaugurated the college and provided necessary funds.

Later Government of the People's Republic of Bangladesh declared this college as a Sherpur Government Mohila College in 1984.
